KPFK SWITCHBOARD

(818) 985-2711

9 AM to 5 PM, Monday - Friday

As many of you are aware, last year the original Pacifica case involving the "Jerk" set new guidelines for programs which the FCC deemed "indecent." In that case, the FCC expanded the definition of indecent to go beyond the "seven dirty words" and move the time channel for indecent language programs to midnight from 10:00 pm.

The broadcast industry and liberal groups petitioned the FCC to reconsider its guidelines. When the petition was denied, the groups, headed by Action for Children's Television, appealed to the Court of Appeals. The court on Friday July 29th issued its decision.

Portions of the decision by the Court of Appeals states, "We uphold the generic definition the FCC has determined to apply, case-by-case, in judging indecency complaints, but we conclude that the Commission has not adequately justified its new, more restrictive channeling approach, i.e., its curtailment of the hours when non-obscene programs containing indecent speech may be broadcast. Two of the three cases before us involve programs aired after 10:00 p.m. One involves a show aired 6:00-10:00 a.m. Observing that the FCC, mindful of the licensee's reliance on prior Commission rulings, imposed no sanctions, we affirm the Commission's declaratory warning order regarding the show aired 6:00-10:00 a.m. We vacate the FCC's orders regarding the post 10:00 p.m. broadcasts and remand those cases to the Commission with instructions to reopen the time limitation or channeling aspect of the ruling for fresh decision on a full record and in a manner sensitive to these considerations: (1) the speech at issue, as the FCC has acknowledged, is protected by the first amendment; (2) the Commission's avowed objective is not to establish itself as censor but to assist parents in controlling the material young children will hear."

The decision does two things. It affirms the FCC's expanded definition of indecency as constitutional, but it remands the time change back to the FCC for further hearings. Accordingly, because Howard Stern's programs occurred before 10:00 p.m., the warning against his station was affirmed. The warning against Pacifica and the UC Santa Barbara station for post 10:00 p.m. programs was vacated or removed.

What does this mean? We are stuck with a vague, case to case, guideline for what is "indecent." But the case does make clear that the FCC must hold full and fair hearings over any change in the 10:00 p.m. rule. Further advice is expected from our attorneys and we will keep you informed of any developments.

Last month many of you received an appeal from us to send in a contribution to KPFK. In that letter we spoke about some of the exciting growth that is underway at KPFK. We have witnessed it through a number of dynamic national and local programs, and internal to the station a major studio renovation project. However with growth comes additional demands and expenses. We are pleased that KPFK is growing and that you have been stepping forward to help us make the difference. Please take the time during this last month of our fiscal year and send in a contribution to KPFK.

Construction is in full swing for our new production facilities. By our next folio deadline we hope to successfully announce the completion of phase one of this renovation.

Lastly, the next National Board Meeting of the Pacifica Foundation will be held in New York City from September 23-25. The fall meetings are devoted to budget reviews of all five stations and the nationals units for the coming fiscal year which begins on October 1.

The Pacifica Foundation provides the KPFK mailing list to an organization which in turn rents or exchanges, on behalf of the Foundation, mailing lists of other non-profit organizations. If you object to having your name and address used in this way, please write to our Subscriptions Department, enclosing a recent Folio label, and we will omit you from our exchange list. If your request to have your name and address not given to other organizations has already been entered in our computer, the letters "NX" will appear on the top line of your mailing label, to the right of the expiration date.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

LABOR DAY Monday, Sept. 5th

We'll kick off our holiday celebration with Howard Feldman and Mario Casetta's recollections of the labor movement of the 1930's as preserved in recordings from the period. The Politics of Culture, first broadcast in 1982, will air at 9am. At 11am, Goodbye to the Protestant Ethic examines the meaning of work and leisure in industrial societies. Beginning at 12 noon, dance your cares away to The Grateful Dead, then relax and cool off to folk music with Brian May from 4:30-6pm.

BRAZILIAN SPECIAL Wednesday, Sept. 7th & Friday, Sept. 9th

Our fifth annual commemoration of Brazilian Independence Day will be broadcast in two parts. We think you'll find your appetite whetted Wednesday afternoon at 5pm, but you'll just have to hang on for the balance of the program until Friday evening from 7-10pm.

ROSH HASHANAH/YOM KIPPUR SPECIAL Friday, Sept. 16th

Happy Holidays! If you love, or if you haven't met Yiddish: The Fabulous Invalid, tune in at 2pm for a wonderful program of Yiddish literature.

MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY SPECIAL Saturday, Sept. 17th

The painting on our cover depicts Padre Miguel Hidalgo delivering his "El Grito de Dolores" at the start of Mexico's fight for independence from Spain on September 16, 1810. An hour of salsa music with Hector Resendez and Kathy Diaz at 7pm preceeds our four-hour, bilingual exploration of the politics and culture of Mexico and Latin America (8pm-midnight).

COLTRANE WEEK Sept. 19th thru 24th

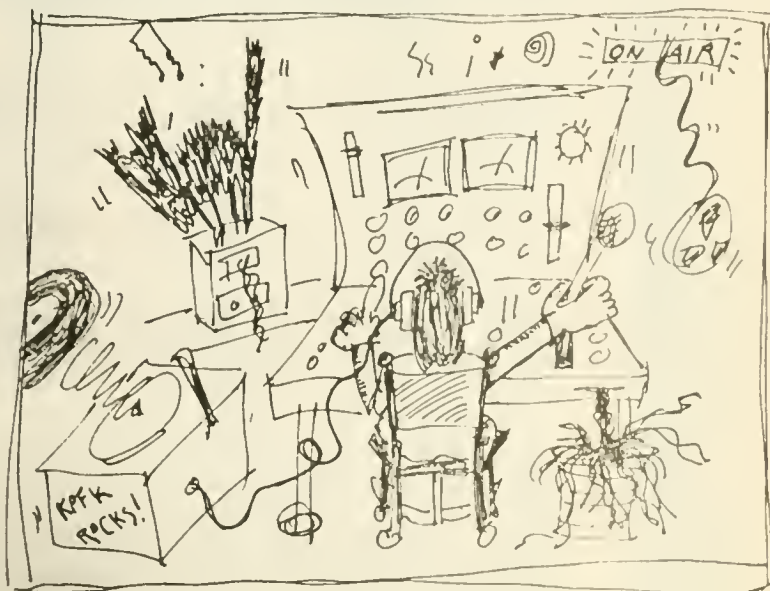

The 2nd Annual John Coltrane Festival (Sept. 23-25) is dedicated not only to the music of the late jazz musician, but to the development of aspiring young artists and musicians as well. We'll be meeting some of those new performers and enjoy Coltrane's music on the Noon Concerts (12-2pm) throughout the week, Spectrum (Wednesday, 9:30pm) and Fusion and Beyond (Saturday, 9:30pm).

APPRENTICESHIP UPDATE

The Pacifica Apprenticeship Program is well underway at KPFK. The first group of apprentices have just completed four months of training, and a second group will join KPFK in the first week of October. The apprenticeship program consists of intensive theoretical and hands-on instruction, and is geared to bring women and people of color into the Pacifica network.

The first group of apprentices have adopted the name "MAKIA" after a principle of Iluna Wisdom which means "energy flows where attention goes." We have worked under the tutelage of training co-ordinator Louisa Fernandez-Pellon, production director Maricel Pagulayan, studio maintenance engineer Richard Michael, KPFK staff, and guest instructors. We have focused our attention on developing a thorough understanding of the radio medium (physics of sound, voice, soundscaping, recording techniques, etc.) in order to properly support this station.

The apprenticeship training is an on-going program. New groups of trainees are selected every four to five months. No previous radio experience is required to apply, however, a strong commitment to this rigorous 18 month is necessary. For more information about the program, call the KPFK switchboard at (818) 985-2711, or write to the KPFK Director of Training, 3729 Cahuenga Blvd. west, North Hollywood, Cal. 91604.

TESLA

The Lost Inventions

by George Trinkaus

Here are the suppressed inventions of Nikola Tesla all in one place and concisely rendered in clear English and in 42 illustrations.
